Great Lakes Region - North - Cadet Leadership School

Course Director: 1st Lt Sean Dobbs, email is seanjdobbs@yahoo.com

CLS - IS THE BEST!

This advanced course is designed to enhance the leadership skills of cadets who have previously attended an encampment. The focus of the course is teamwork, with emphasis on time management, instructional techniques, and attention to detail. Students who complete the course will receive Region Cadet Leadership School credit (meeting the requirements for the Eaker Award). Applicants for Cadet Leadership School MUST have completed Achievement 5 prior to 12 July 08 in order to be eligible to attend, or have written permission from the course director. CLS students must apply by 20 June 08 DEADLINE EXTENDED, 1 JULY 08. Walk-ins will NOT be accepted for Cadet Leadership School.

The cost for Cadet Leadership School is the same as Basic Encampment, $220. This fee includes room and board, but does not include transportation (carpooling is recommended). Additional information is available by contacting the School Director, 1st Lt Sean Dobbs, email is seanjdobbs@yahoo.com The CLS packing list will be the same as the basic packing list however (1) one extra set of blues is highly encouraged!

Synopsis:

Cadet Leadership School is a week long activity held alongside Basic Encampment that is intended to challenge and refine a Cadet's leadership abilities. It has been held every year since 1986 and has been considered a GLR Leadership School since 1999. Its primary focus is on teamwork dynamics, accountability, attention to detail and leadership methods. The School's goals are to prepare the Cadet for leadership positions at the home unit and to give them the tools to pass on what they have learned.

Michigan Wing Cadet Leadership Class of 1986

Activities:

Cadets will be taught in the classroom and out in the field. Classes taught include: Roles of the NCO and Officer, Fundamentals of Instruction, Management vs Leadership and Group Dynamics. Along with Didactics, Cadets are expected to work alongside Basic Encampment Cadet Staff in order to complete tasks and projects. There will also be several opportunities for hands on and interactive training. This ranges from panel discusses to physical leadership exercises.

Graduation:

Any Cadet that attends the course will receive the region leadership requirement for the Eaker Award. However attending CLS entails more than just showing up. Cadet's will be encouraged to pass the courses graduation standards. Cadets who complete the course with an 85% in all subject matter (Inspections, Academics, Leadership, Drill) will be eligible for Graduation from the course.

Course Prerequisites:

-Attended one previous Basic Encampment
-Completed Achievement 5 (or written permission from director)
-At least 14 years of age (under 14 years old must have Squadron Recommendation)

Check out these great videos created out of the GLR RCLS Class of 2007!

Created by 1st Lt Sean Dobbs

The Great Lakes North Regional Cadet Leadership Class of 2007